

VIRGINIA BEACH BAR ASSOCIATION

Volume Number 27 :: Issue 1 :: Spring 2018

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It may be true that "there is nothing new under the sun," but the beginning of a Bar Association year without our erstwhile Executive Director, Jean Keary, feels like a very new thing to us, your Executive Board. We took great pride in honoring Jean in January with the dedication of the Bar office. We ask for your patience as we work to accomplish the myriad tasks ahead of us this year, from the mundane (tracking and entering contact data for each new and renewing member) to the sublime (avoiding the potholes and pitfalls that potentially await each of our decisions and actions).

We are particularly mindful that our most important task this year – and the one upon which our service to the Bar will be judged in the fullness of time – is our choice for a new Executive Director. Nobody can fill Jean's shoes, of course, but we nonetheless need to find a highly motivated and effective person to do their best impression of her. To guide us, we have developed a Vision Statement and a Mission Statement for our organization: vbbarassoc.com/mission-and-vision, which allowed us to reflect upon what we do and why we do it. From there, we developed a detailed job description: www.vbbarassoc.com/executive both to capture our aspirations and to fairly depict to interested persons the type of skills we envision in an Executive Director. You can do your part by forwarding the job posting to anyone you know who might be interested, and asking them to send their resume and a brief statement of interest to us at vbba@vbbarassoc.com.

To guide the Board in this important decision, we have asked Judges Glenn Croshaw, Lisa Hodges and Kevin Duffan – along with Past President Judy Rosenblatt – to serve with us on the interview panel. With their wise counsel, we hope to have a new Executive Director in place soon. We also plan increased dialogue and interaction with our Past Presidents' Council, in the hopes of being mindful of our history as we move forward into this new era.

To be certain, we are not standing still in the meantime. We had a terrific planning meeting with our energized group of committee chairs and vice-chairs last month at Tempt Restaurant. Individually and collectively, they have the enthusiasm and vision to take our committee work to greater heights.

This year, we are launching two new initiatives. The first, chaired by Steve Pfeiffer with the assistance of vice-chair Kathleen Keffer, is a new public service effort in which the committee has been tasked with identifying and advancing a signature project serving the larger Virginia Beach community. Steve's group has advanced several worthy ideas already and we look forward to their refinement and execution of the mission ahead. The other new effort, chaired by Lamont Maddox and vice-chaired by Kyle Korte, is the Corporate & Transactional Practice Committee. Our hope is that this committee will assist the Board in identifying and developing relevant CLE topics and networking events that better serve our transactional practice attorneys, a group that has traditionally been undeserved by our litigator-heavy organization.

Our two newest board members, Ed Booth and Ryan Ferguson, are hard at work planning this year's CLE slate. The plan, as always, is to offer no-additional cost CLEs to our members that cover an entire year's required credit hours in interesting and useful topics, with social and networking opportunities immediately following each event. We hope you will join us Thursday, April 26, 2018 for our first CLE of the year, when we present "Practice Tips for Effective and Ethical Negotiation in Complex Family Law Cases" with recently retired Virginia Beach J&DR Judge Winship Tower. Please save that date and be on the lookout for details. A hearty thank you to our sponsors, Veteran Reporters and The McCammon Group, for their generous contributions toward these and other events.

Fear not. It is not lost on your Board that ours is a social bar. Accordingly, we intend to continue the recent tradition of offering quarterly stand-alone happy hours. We hope you will join us at the first two, which will be March 8th at the new Wasserhund Brewery and May 24th outside at Rudee's Restaurant & Cabana Bar.

Finally, we will be returning to our roots – both literally and figuratively – on June 9, 2018 when the newly renovated Cavalier Hotel on the Hill hosts this year's Annual Banquet and Party. We envision a festive, dressy-casual event beginning outside on the lawn and continuing in the elegantly restored ballroom, where there will be food, fellowship, good music, and perhaps even some dancing. The renowned '80s cover band, The Deloreans, will be helping us celebrate the impending arrival of summer at the Oceanfront.

Please know that each of us is committed to serving you, our members, and to maximizing your investment in the Bar. We encourage you to reach out to any of us and offer your suggestions, comments, or concerns about how we might be a better and more responsive Bar Association.

Practice tips from the Circuit Court

 STAFF ATTORNEY

REMINDERS: ORIGINAL SIGNATURES NEEDED ON ALL COURT DOCUMENTS AND ORDERS; NEED CURRENT VERSION OF § 20-60.3(5)

“Paperless” isn’t the same as “electronic filing,” so original signatures are still necessary

As most of you are probably aware, the Virginia Beach Circuit Court Clerk’s Office went “paperless” for cases commenced after Jan. 1, 2018. This means that those cases will not exist in the form of a paper file, but will be scanned in and maintained electronically. Thus, paper still exists and is required, it is just turned into an electronic document after filing. As a result, pleadings, motions, and orders that are submitted still need to have original signatures, not electronic, stamped, photocopied, or faxed signatures. Please be sure the documents you file contain original signatures.

Reminder: need to use § 20-60.3(5) as amended in two different places in 2015

Failing to include the full text of the current version of § 20-60.3(5), when support notices are required, continues to be problem spot for many domestic relations orders. Many orders manage to include the additions that were made after “(a)” in the last part of § 20-60.3(5). However, changes made just prior to that portion often are missed, namely “the court may also order the continuation of that support be paid or continue to be paid for any child over the age of 18 . . .” (alterations indicated by strike out and highlighting). The easiest approach is probably just to block copy the entire notice, which can be done by visiting the free, state-hosted web site <https://law.lis.virginia.gov/vacode/>.

Legal Food Frenzy <sup>12th Annual Statewide</sup>

Almost 2 million Virginians are now considered “food insecure,” meaning they do not know where they will get their next meal. To bring those numbers close to home, a recent study by Feeding America indicated 30% of our food bank clientele were children, 8% elderly, 34% households with at least one employed adult, and 14% were homeless. The Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore serves our communities through programs like the Kids Cafe® and Back Pack programs, mobile pantries, and individual household distribution. Once again the legal community will come together for its 27th Annual and 12th Annual Statewide Legal Food Frenzy Competition. The Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore invite you all in the legal community to participate beginning April 16, 2018! Partnering with the Virginia Bar Association Young Lawyers

Division and the Office of the Attorney General of Virginia, this statewide event will take place April 16 - April 27, 2018, to raise both food and funds for the Foodbank. The Legal Food Frenzy provides lawyers and their staff an opportunity to creatively work as a team and make a huge impact in our community by helping provide food to those struggling with hunger. In 2017, our Legal Food Frenzy collected funds and food equated to 457,970 pounds of food to be distributed in Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore. With a donation of just $50.00, the Foodbank is able to distribute $150.00 of groceries. Imagine what an entire office can do!
